

Safeguard Health and Safety Conference

The incoming Health and Safety Reform Bill is going to significantly shift the health and safety landscape for all OSH professionals. Now is the critical time to understand the upcoming changes, review your processes and learn best practice.

The Safeguard National Health and Safety Conference is the must-attend event on the health and safety calendar. Here's why:

- International insights from global experts James Barnes, Park Health and Safety Partnership (UK), and Kirstin Ferguson, Non-Executive Director (Australia)
- Local practitioner perspectives from NZ Steel, SafeRebuild Canterbury, Z Energy, Hubbard Foods and many more
- Learn and be inspired by local leaders in Health and Safety at the separately bookable New Zealand Workplace Health and Safety Awards
- Network with over 350 of your fellow health and safety professionals

Entries for the 2015 New Zealand Workplace Health & Safety Awards have now closed. Come and celebrate the achievements in New Zealand Health & Safety at the 2015 Gala Dinner and awards Presentation hosted by Miriama Kamo.

Bring your team you'll be amongst leaders in the industry as outstanding workplace Health and Safety practices are applauded – and awarded.

It all happens on the evening of day one of the Safeguard National Health and Safety Conference at the SKYCITY Convention Centre, Auckland, 27 May 2015. A table of 10 is $1500.00 plus GST, individual tickets are $165.00 + GST. Pre dinner drinks start at 6.30pm. Dress to impress.

Visit www.safeguard.co.nz to purchase your tickets.

Over the last 5 years Vitae has been proud to sponsor the award for the best initiative to improve employee wellness.
